Teradata Live Demos: Simplify Cost Governance With Teradata VantageCloud Lake

Data analytics can play a key role in enhancing a company's performance and profitability. But organizations can easily overspend on analytics if they aren't monitoring and optimizing their costs.

Join us on Thursday, March 21, 2024, 8 a.m. PT | 11 a.m. ET | 4 p.m. GMT for key insights on how VantageCloud Lake can help businesses manage their cloud data resources and innovate more efficiently and cost-effectively.

In this live demo, discover how you can leverage VantageCloud Lake's easy-to-use governance features to:

- Easily visualize current consumption and future estimates by department with drillable reports
- Set automated alerts based on consumption thresholds for policy-driven guardrails
- Estimate usage and cost for new environments in real time with interactive selections
- Create new profiles to estimate consumption with auto-scaling and cool-down options
- Use ask.ai, Teradata's generative AI chat feature, to get pricing models, unit burn-down, and organization information
